Message from the Vice-Chairman

I welcome you to GATE. Becoming a student at Gate is the first step to enter into a different academic environment. Besides quality teaching, the institute provides a wholesome educational experience for an all-round development of personality. It equips the students with right technical skills, human values and social behavior.

GATE is not just yet another technical institute. Backed by a team of teachers with commitment, dedication and futuristic vision, the institute places several challenges before the students, and expects them to brace themselves for the impending responsibilities when they face them in the future.

You will be a part of our dream and our effort to make a small difference in the world around us. We will move hand-in-hand to that realm where education is revered and rewarded. We will be with you all the way... in every way. We look forward to seeing many progressive changes in your personality with the years of GATE experience.

This handbook is of utmost importance to every student. It will help you to know more about GATE. Please go through it and keep it as a ready reference.

Wish you a fruitful time and an excellent career.

(Sd/-)

4. Administration of GATE

Gandhi Academy of Technology and Engineering has two apex bodies, namely the Governing Body and Executive Council. The overall administration of the Institute is delegated to the Director by the apex bodies. The Director will enforce all the approved regulations, for the internal governance of the Institute. The Deans of divisions and Heads of various departments, Faculty-in-Charge(FIC), Faculty Coordinator(FC) and the SPOC's(Single Point of Contact) form the principal functionaries of the Institute.

Duly constituted committees with the approval of the Director, monitors the enforcement and maintenance of all such rules and general procedures that are in line with the Institute policies and BPUT Academic Regulations.

5. Institute Rules & Regulations

On admission to any course of study, every student submits himself/herself to disciplinary jurisdiction of the management of the Institute, the in-charge and other officers of the institute who may be vested with the authority to exercise discipline under the Rules and Regulations that have been or will be framed by the Institute.

Students studying in the Institute, if found indulging in anti-national activities contrary to the provisions of Acts and Laws enforced by Government or in any activity contrary to the rules of discipline, will be liable to be expelled from the Institute without any notice by the Director.

Nothing in these rules and regulations shall be construed to limit or abridge the power of the Director/Head of the Department or his/her delegates to relax any of these regulations to such extent and subject to such conditions, as he/she may consider necessary for dealing with a case in a just and equitable manner. Ignorance of the rules and regulations contained in this document is no excuse.

The Institute reserves the right to change or add such rules from time to time for smooth functioning of the Institute.

The students are advised to keep themselves aware of the Institute rules. They are also advised to go through the detailed Prevention of Ragging rules given separately.

6. Implementation of The Rules

The Institute staff members charged with the administration of these rules shall at all times seek to implement the rules and the spirit of the BPUT Act.

7. Academic Regulations

The Academic Regulations are governed by the BPUT Statutes and Ordinances. Students are advised to make themselves aware regarding BPUT Rules and Regulations by logging onto www.bput.ac.in.

8. Action against ragging

Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, during December 2007 has expressed concern over the incidents of ragging occurring in higher educational institutions and the need to eliminate it altogether.

The Ministry of Human Resource Development, Govt. of India has taken a serious note of the incidents of ragging and is of the view that stern action should be taken against those indulging in "ragging" so that the these incidents are not repeated and exemplary punishment is meted out to those indulging in it. Strict implementation of the guidelines issued by Hon'ble Supreme Court on this issue has also been stressed by the Ministry.

This policy encourages socialization of students to the academic environment of the Institute, simultaneously discouraging and preventing any negative acts on parts of senior students, which goes against the basic purpose of Socio academic integration.

All students and their parents and guardians are therefore requested to go through this document carefully and promise to abide by it.

1. Ragging within or outside the Institute is strictly prohibited.
2. Whosoever directly or indirectly commits, participates in, abets or propagates ragging within or outside the Institute shall, on conviction, be punished, as per the provision of the Act.
3. Any student convicted of an offence of ragging shall be expelled from the educational institution and such student shall not be admitted to any other educational institute for a period of five years from the date of order of such dismissal.

A defaulting student who is aggrieved with the punishment awarded may prefer an appeal to the Chairman of the Institute, within 30 days of award of punishment, stating the reasons as to why the punishment should not be awarded. The Chairman shall prescribe the procedure to process such appeals.

25. Faculty Advisor

The primary purpose of academic advising is to assist students in their pursuit of meaningful educational programs which will assist them in fulfilling their goals in life, including career considerations. It also includes assisting students in (1) understanding institutional support services available to them, (2) understanding institutional policies and procedures, (3) making decisions based on available information, and (4) examining their progress toward the realization of their goals and (5) understanding their personal problems if any and render required support and help. Every student admitted to the Institute is assigned a Faculty Advisor who assists the student in the induction process and monitors the student's progress during his/her tenure at the Institute. Students are advised to discuss their problems and difficulties with their respective faculty advisors.

In the first year faculty members mostly from the Department of Basic Sciences & Humanities, are assigned these responsibilities. From the second year onwards the student is attached to a faculty member of the branch for the next 6 semesters.

26. Examination

Subject Registration

Every student must complete the process of subject registration during the first week of instruction of each semester. Late fee shall be charged for late registration. The Institute is not responsible if University will not permit a student to register for a semester beyond the dead line.

Students are asked to register for the elective subjects of a semester during the previous semester. They are asked to exercise their choice for the elective subjects through ERP. They must consult their Faculty Advisors and other concerned teachers before exercising their choice. No change in elective subjects is permitted after the finalization of the elective subjects and groups.

Students must register for the backlogs by paying the specified fees. For a backlog in theory subjects they can register in two categories, with internals or without internals. In the former case they have to pay the additional fee for the internals and appear the internals as per the declared schedule. For a back log in practicals or sessionals a student has to register for the same during the first week of the semester by paying the required fee and complete the practical/sessional by attending to the process.

Students reregistering for a semester because of year back shall be permitted provisionally subject to the approval from the University. They must submit the required documents for obtaining the approval.

Issue of Admit card

Admit Card for appearing for the university examination is issued to students after fulfilment of the following conditions

- Student should have completed the registration process for prescribed subjects of a particular semester at the beginning of the semester.

- Attendance must be at least 75% for every subject (65% under medical grounds).
- All the Institute dues must be cleared.

In case of missing of admit card, a duplicate admit card may be issued after depositing the fine amount fixed for the same in the examination section.

Admit cards are issued normally two days before the commencement of examination.

Loss of University registration card should be reported immediately after lodging an FIR in the nearest Police station. Application for issuance of a duplicate must be made to the Information Cell along with the FIR copy. The institute will forward the application to the University after necessary processing and verification.

Attendance Rules

Attendance in the theory classes must be more than 75% and with medical reasons 65%, failing which a student will not be allowed to appear for the university exam.

In practical classes a minimum of 70% of the course needs to be completed to avoid "F" grade in the lab.

Attendance shortage in more than three theory subjects and not clearing two lab subjects will lead to "No Promotion" to the next semester.

University Examination Conduction Rules

30. Transport Facility & Rules

Transport is an integral facility for all students. The Institute provides transport facilities to all its students. Care has been taken to cover major parts of Berhampur, as the case may be, through its routes.

Students who agree to abide by the transport rules of the Institute are advised to use the Institute transport.

The bus will pickup or drop students only at the specified boarding /dropping points. Students must wait at those specified stops to board the bus. The students should not attempt to change the boarding /dropping point, or routes without proper permission and such request will not be entertained during the middle of the semester.

Students must travel by the bus allotted to the route concerned. They must not change their bus number or routes.

- Strict discipline must be maintained in the bus.
- Smoking and consumption of tobacco, alcohol etc is strictly prohibited.
- Ragging of any form is strictly prohibited.
- Students are advised for minimal usage of Mobile phones during travel.
- Shouting, fighting, bullying and bad language will not be tolerated.
- If buses are kept waiting by particular students, the driver will report the matter to the Transport Office and action deemed proper shall be taken.
- In the event of an accident or breakdown, students on board the bus must remain with the bus until alternative transport arrangements have been made.
- Students must behave politely with the transport staff.
- Students must take proper care of the items like seats, lights, glasses etc. Any damage will be borne by the users.
- Violation of any of these rules shall lead to strict disciplinary action.

The transport facility may be withdrawn during natural calamities, strikes, bandhs, etc.

31. GATE Residence Rules

(i) Application: Admission in the GATE Residence cannot be claimed by any student as a matter of right. Students shall have to apply for GATE Residence accommodation before the start of the academic year. The first year and lateral entry students shall have to fill in the GATE Residence Application form provided to them and deposit the same to the Admission Office. Every attempt will be made to provide GATE Residence accommodation to all students. Day-scholars, interested for GATE Residence facility have to make a written request by 30th April every year.

- (ii) Allotment: GATE Residence accommodation is allotted purely at the discretion of the Faculty in Charge and on condition that the student agrees to abide by all the rules and regulations of GATE Residence. The Faculty in Charge may refuse GATE Residence facilities without assigning any reason or remove a resident from the GATE Residence at any time on disciplinary grounds. Students may be required on disciplinary grounds to vacate their rooms at short notice. Similarly students may be required to shift to alternate accommodation at short notice due to administrative reasons. The Institute reserves the right to break open any room which is not vacated, pack up the contents and store it. No complaints of breakage or loss will be entertained.

Allotment shall be made keeping in view

- (i) The distance of the actual place of the GATE Residence of the students from the Institute.
- (ii) In case number of applicants for the GATE Residence accommodation is more than the accommodated in the GATE Residence, the Institute shall maintain a waiting list and when there is a vacancy in the GATE Residence, it shall be filled from the waiting list.

Application for allotment during the currency of any semester may be made and will be entertained subject to availability.

The rooms allotted to the students at the time of admission are for a period of one academic year only. Residents are required to shift to other blocks/ rooms as and when informed by GATE Residence authorities. This shifting may be necessitated due to administrative reasons and students are required to co-operate. Residents must occupy rooms specifically allotted to them. Residents shall not change over to any other room or swap their allocated room with other students except with the written permission of the Faculty in Charge. Allotment of a room made to any student is subject to cancellation if he/ she fails to occupy it in the stipulated time or is found absent from the room without prior information or any valid reason. Allotment may be forfeited if the student fails to clear all their dues to the GATE Residence by the scheduled date.

Once a student has been admitted to the GATE Residence, he/she will not be permitted to leave without a written application of his parents or guardian.

The GATE Residence facilities fee/ caution deposit must be paid at the time of registration and before beginning of every academic year.

The establishment charges for a student in the GATE Residence is meant for only using Mattress, pillow, study table, chair, cot etc. No student can claim as his/her personal properties to those items. They have to surrender all those items in good condition before taking clearance from GATE Residence to avoid penalty.

The utility charges refer to electricity, water, cleaning of common areas and security services and other maintenance costs. The utility charges are not fixed and they are subject to change.

(iii) Withdrawal: Residents who wish to withdraw themselves from the GATE Residence must make an application to the Faculty in Charge and meet the Warden for necessary formalities/advice. Any student seeking withdrawal from the GATE Residence during the ongoing academic year shall forfeit the GATE Residence fees already paid.

Re-admission of withdrawn students shall be at the discretion of the Faculty in Charge.

(iv) Renewal: The renewal of admission to the GATE Residence is NOT automatic. Every student has to make an application to the Faculty in Charge for renewal of allotment in subsequent years during the period of 16th of April to 15th of May every year. Students not making an application for renewal shall be deemed to have withdrawn from the GATE Residence.

A resident student is required to have at least 85% attendance in all theory classes and 90% attendance in lab classes. The Faculty in Charge may refuse renewal of allotment to students based on conduct, discipline, and attendance in theory, tutorial and lab classes and the performance in exam. A committee will review the above aspects of the each candidate and the selected candidates will be permitted for renewal. Students found wanting on the above grounds shall be intimated to leave the GATE Residence before of 1st of July every year.

Expulsion from the GATE Residence on disciplinary grounds will result in forfeiture of the fees already paid during admission to GATE Residence.

The Institute reserves the right to refuse admission to the GATE Residence to any student or to expel an existing resident in the interest of administration without assigning any reason.

Parents and guardians of the student Residents are most welcome to discuss the progress, conduct and behavior of the student with the wardens. Cooperation of parents and guardian in this regard is solicited.

Students are not allowed to stay in the GATE Residence without the permission of their Faculty Advisor during class hours.

This rule will be not applicable during Semester break and the Puja vacation.

During semester break anyone who takes food in the canteen will be charged as per guest meal.

Student-resident not taking lunch or dinner due to illness or long absence with permission shall be liable to pay for proportionate count for the month (minimum 70 percent).

If any student wants to withdraw from or join in GATE Residence during a month the number of canteen days shall be calculated as per the enrolment period for that month.

Any 1st year student taking admission in the residence will be treated as vegetarian unless and until he/she registers in canteen ERP giving his/her option for veg and non-veg food. Registered student-residents can avail food in his/her choice accordingly.

If a student-resident takes leave from the residence and comes to the institute in between the leave period, can consume food in the canteen but will be charged as per the guest meal. But one can also rejoin with proper information before the leave period, in that case usual meal rate will be charged.

The Canteen billing is done on a monthly basis and all dues have to be cleared before the 5th day of the succeeding month.

Defaulters in paying the canteen bill beyond three months will not be allowed to dine in the mess.

33. Fee Payment Rules

Every student will have to pay the annual fees at the time of admission/ registration or by FIRST MONDAY OF JULY of every year.

All fees are to be paid in Cheque/Demand Draft/Pay Order drawn in favour of Gandhi Academy of Technology, payable at Berhampur. Outstation non- MICR and non-CTS cheque will not be accepted. No cash transaction is accepted for annual dues.

Any student who withdraws during the first year of admission, the norms as prescribed by AICTE shall be applicable. Other students who wish to leave the Institute in the midst of a semester shall forfeit the fees paid to the Institute.

Due date for fee collection will not be extended just because the award of scholarship or availing of loan facility is awaited.

Scholarship holders are advised to open bank accounts for remittance of scholarships.

Fees once paid is neither refundable nor transferable. Refund of all caution deposits will be made at the time of issuing University Certificate after adjusting monthly dues, dues from labs, library etc.

Caution money should be collected at the time of issue of university certificate or within three years after completion of the course. Unclaimed caution money will automatically lapse after the said period.

Students, who fail to pay the annual fees or dues notified by respective departments of the Institute within the notified dates, a late fee of Rs 5/- per day will be charged on outstanding of amount of more than Rs.10/-. A student whose late fee amount exceeds beyond Rs 300/-will entail automatic penal action leading to struck off of name from the attendance registers and will not be given the benefit of attendance for the period during which his/her name remains struck off the attendance Rolls. However, students whose names have been struck off for default in fee payment may seek reinstatement with a written application and has to pay reinstatement fee of Rs 500/- along with the default amount. The reinstatement application has to be approved by the Dean Academics and submitted to Accounts Department.

If the last due day for fee collection falls on a holiday, fee due will be collected on the next working day.

A defaulter who does not clear all dues before semester registration as well as issue of admit cards will not be allowed to appear for the examination.

Time for remittance is from 10.00 a.m. to 1.30 p.m. and 2.00 p.m. to 4.00 p.m. only. Receipts shall be issued on all payments which should be produced for verification required for getting the Examination Admit Card, No Dues Certificate, and for confirmation of their payment of fees. Students are advised to verify the receipts of remittance before leaving the counter. Also, they are advised to tender exact change to avoid delay at the counter.

Absence from the Institute, whether on leave or without leave, forms no ground for exemption from the applicability of the above rules.

Ignorance of the rules and regulations contained in this document cannot be treated as an excuse.

The Institute reserves the right to change or add such rules from time to time for smooth functioning of the Institute.
